

Many thanks to the 2025 Conference contributors. Their generous in kind and cash support allows conference organizers keep registration fees affordable, reduce expenses, deliver a high quality, fun event and enable Victoria Master Gardeners to reach fundraising goals.

PRINCIPAL SPONSORS ($1,000 or more)

Bartlett Tree Experts

Scientific Tree Care since 1907

Supporter of Trees in an Urban Environment presentation by Dr. Thomas Smiley; cash support; donor of a $500 tree service item in the Silent Auction and a Cornus sericea (red twig dogwood/red osier dogwood) seedling for each delegate. Bartlett staff will also be available on Conference Day to offer tree advice and info on their services to delegates. We welcome the return of Bartlett, a strong Mixing it up supporter since 2017.

Russell Nursery

Growing Roots Since 1992

Supporter of The Homegrown National Park presentation by Dr. Doug Tallamy, gardening tools for the Silent Auction, and the plant material for the conference venue décor. Russell Nurseries has been another long-time conference supporter.

Peninsula Co-op

Moving ahead by giving back!

Sponsorship of Conference Hospitality Service (refreshments and snacks during all the breaks) through a contribution of cash and gift cards to their Co-op Grocery Store on Keating X Road.

CONTRIBUTING SPONSORS ($500 or more)

Gardener's Kit

Speciality Tools for Keen Gardeners

Supporter of Citizen Science in the Garden presentation by Dr. Brian Starzomski, donor of unique garden tools for the Silent Auction & door prizes, and a conference vendor.

Gardens at HCP

Connecting People with Plants

Supporter of the Conference Silent Auction and a conference vendor. The Gardens at HCP (Horticulture Centre of the Pacific) present a year-round 'gardeners' garden experience. A true 'hidden gem'. HCP has been another long-time conference supporter, and home of the Victoria Master Gardeners.

Wildwood Outdoor Living Centre

For All of Us

Supporter of Mind What You Sow presentation by Maria Valana, donor of items for the Silent Auction, and a conference vendor.

SUPPORTERS (Under $500) helped with in kind contributions, cash, gift cards, Silent Auction items, door prizes and more, all to enhance our conference experience and enjoyment. So far confirmed
